DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, dedicate this book to

NELSON BEARSLEY

for all his conscientious work in keeping our school clean and neat, and for his pleasant, understanding manner in his association with the students while serving as custodian for the past six years.

We want to extend to Mr. Bearsley our best wishes for the future.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of Revonah High School, hereby dedicate this book to the memory of the Revonah Board of Education. We are proud to be members of this great organization and to be able to contribute to its success. We hope that this book will be a source of inspiration and information for all who read it.

We want to extend to the Revonah Board of Education our best wishes for the future.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

September of 1949 was a day not to be forgotten for twenty-six green-eyed Freshmen. Let's roll back the years to that time. The class consisted of Jean Heather, Mary Anne Jagielski, Winonna Goodrich, Kay Hazer, Edith Peschang, Hugh Warren, Clifford Vandervate, Nora Ballein, Bonnie Bearsley, Charlane Randecker, Eldora Sweeney, Jack Robinson, Mary Potter, Marilyn Speer, Miriam Leidinger, Barbara Weede, Mary Shafer, Cecil Peschang, Bill Donnan, Roger Hede-man, Herbert Wilson, Albert Noton, Jill Robinson, Leland Curtis, Betty Paisley and Grant Puckett. During the course of the year, we were joined by Virginia Scharf and John Wunderlin, but we had the misfortune of losing Leland Curtis. Mr. Wojan was chosen as our class advisor.

The big event of our Freshman year was initiation. The boys had to wear baby diapers and hoods and carry a baby bottle. The girls had to wear thin dresses and men's shoes. This was all topped off with a big party that same night, where I'm sure, everyone had a good time.

Time seemed to fly and soon we became Sophomores. New students that year were Peggy Pascoe and Robert Howard, who stayed with us only a short time, Burdette Mercer, Pat Kehl and Marilyn Mielke. However, we lost Hugh Warren and Clifford Vandervate. During the first part of the year, we were very much occupied with the magazine sales. We came out in one of the two top places, and, therefore we did not have to give a party that year for the rest of the student body. Mr. Burns was elected class advisor and remained with us for the remainder of our high school days.

Well, more time has passed and we're now Juniors. One new student joined our ranks. She was Mary Jane Harker, who later went to Savanna. This was a big year in some ways. We were hosts at the Junior-Senior Prom, the theme of which was the "Stork Club." We also came out on top at the magazine sales. The end of the year was marked by a picnic at the Mississippi Palisades.

The day had finally come when we stepped into Hanover High School as the "Mighty Seniors." John Wunderlin came into our class as a new student. We repeated history by coming out on top once more in magazine competition. We were entertained at the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held on May 23rd. The big day occurred in our high school career when we left on our trip to Washington, D. C. We departed on May 8th and returned on the 17th. After this, the only two big days remaining for the Seniors were Baccalaureate and Commencement, which were held on May 24th and 29th respectively. From there, we embarked on our own separate ways, but we leave this little bit of advice with our fellow students. "Make the most of your High School days—they're some of the best years of your lives."

CLASSES

"TOMORROW AND TOMORROW AND TOMORROW"

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"By Indirections Find Directions Out"

The Junior Class started 1953 in Hanover High School with twenty-six members. The class officers were elected for the busy year: President, Keith Croffoot; Vice-President, Jack White; Secretary-Treasurer, Norma Kaufman; Student Council member, Joan Larson; and Mr. Richard Wojan as the class advisor.

On December 4, 1952, we presented our Junior Class play "Junior Miss" which was directed by Mr. Wojan. This was one of the many times we had a big success, made money, and still had fun.

Our class will always be proud of Bruce Butts, Keith Croffoot, Jack White, Larry Cobine and Max Harksen, who played so gallantly on the football team. Last but not least, we must not forget Jimmy Stutzman and Keith Croffoot who played on the basketball team.

In order to raise money for our class treasury, we sold refreshments at basketball and football games, had bake sales, candy sales, gave a dance, and gave a chili supper which went over with a big bang!

Quite a few of the Juniors help to make the "Hanover Hi-Lites" a successful and enjoyable school paper.

The Juniors and Seniors also sponsored a Sports Night which was very exciting and enjoyable.

The Juniors are looking forward to Prom Night which is going to be on May 23, 1953. The theme will be "Harbor Lights."

We, the class of 1954, wish the Seniors much happiness and success.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY"AND WHAT DID YOU ENACT?"

We the Sophomore class of 1952 and 1953 have been an average success this year.

We have had a number of bake sales from which we have gained most of our money. We also gave a dance which was not much of a success.

We collected $5.80 for the March of Dimes campaign, which went for a worthy cause.

We collected quite a bit of money from our magazine sales. We were in third place and very close to second.

We have not had many chances to make money so far, but we plan to do better in our Junior year.

We entered a float in the homecoming parade, and it was a success. We had fun making it, and the people seemed to like it. A member of ours, Alex Paisley, was picked Honorary Captain for the homecoming, and Jeannie Petitgoue was an attendant to the queen.

We are looking forward to our Junior Year. We hope it will be a success as our Sophomore year.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY"EXPOSING WHAT IS MORTAL AND UNSURE"

There are thirty-three students in the freshman class with Miss Williams as class advisor.

Our class officers are: President, Eugene Ferguston; Vice President, Barbara Butts; Secretary-Treasurer, Carolyn McKinley; Student Council member, Frances Finley.

We had three boys out for football; Phillip, Eugene, and Jerry B. For basketball there were six; Eugene, Jerry B., Phillip, Ronald, Martin and Jerry C.

There were two cheerleaders also chosen from our class; Carolyn Haug and Carolyn McKinley.

Our class hasn't done much about making money this year; although, we did get a good start on our magazine sales at the beginning of the year.

We, the Freshman class of '55 wish the Seniors of '53 the "Very best of Luck."

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

"Mark the Music"

The music instructor of the Hanover Schools is Mr. C. M. Hounsell, who graduated from the Northwestern University. He also attended the Chicago Music College, and the University of Dubuque. He received his BME and MM degrees at the Northwestern University. This is his fourth year of teaching, and his first year at Hanover.

The music program in the grades, two through six, includes two singing periods, a theory class, and two music appreciation classes each week.

The seventh and eighth grades are divided into two groups, boys and girls, and have singing classes on alternate days.

Class lessons on band instruments are offered to all students who are in the fourth grade or above.

The B Band members are 14 in number and practice once a week on Wednesday at noon.

There is also a grade band this year. There are 29 students who take part in it. The Grade band preformed March 2nd here at school.

The Advanced Band numbers 38 this year. Last year this band received a second rating in our district contest. The officers for this year are: President Edith Peschang; Vice-President Jill Robinson; Secretary-Treasurer Charlene Mitchell.

The Pep Band played for all the home basketball games and the A Band played for all the home football games.

There are 47 girls in the high school girls' chorus. The group sang at the Christmas Operetta, which was put on by the grade school, December 22.

This year, as in the past, many students from Hanover High School preformed at the music contest. This year there were five vocal solos, three instrumental, and four ensembles entered at Morrison, March 14. The Vocal solos were: Phyllis Mielke and Mary Shafer High Voice; Eldora Sweeney and Marilyn Mielke Medium Voice; Pat Kehl Low Voice. Instrumental solos were Mary Shafer and Marilyn Mielke Piano; Edith Peschang Cornet.

Those in the esembles were: Girls' sextete Jill Robinson and Charlene Mitchell Sopranos; Marilyn Mielke and Barbara Burns Second Sopranos; Edith Peschang and Miriam Leidinger Altos. Mixed Octet, Marilyn Mielke and Charlene Mitchell Sopranos; Edith Peschang and Jill Robinson Altos; Jack Robinson and Bill Donnan Tenors; Albert Noton and Jim Stutzman Bass. Brass Sextet Edith Peschang and Kay Winters Cornets; Ronnie Noton, Trombone; Carolyn McKinley, French Horn; Jill Robinson, Baritone; Jack Robinson, Bass. Clarinet Quartet, Barbara Burns, Carol Crawford, Jean Speer, Jean Schuster.

The officers for the Band Boosters Club are: President Mrs. Jack McIntyre, Vice-Pres. Bernice McIntyre, Secretary Mrs. Melvin Callahan, Treasurer Mrs. William Crawford. The Band Boosters purchased the timpini for the A Band.

MIXED OCTET

SENIOR CLASS PLAY....."OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY"

By Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough

In the roaring twenties Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough saved their money and secured passage for Europe on a small boat. Their passage overseas was complicated by two ubiquitous safety pockets (large purses worn under their dresses), a cabin full of trunks, a run-in with a stowaway, a severe case of measles, two English girls who used the water facilities of their room, and two handsome medical students whose kisses "engulfed" the girls. In Paris they were besieged by exploding gas meters, a French actor anxious to meet Cornelia's father, and bedbugs. The girls realize that this is a supreme moment in their lives, for they are seeing Paris and they are nineteen years old.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY....."JUNIOR MISS"

By Jerome Chodorov and Joseph Fields

The play centers around the antics of Judy Graves, a young teenager, who imagines that her father is having his second fling with his secretary, Ellen Curtis. Judy involves her Uncle Willis into the situation. Willis and Ellen eventually fall in love and are married. Comedy is provided by the endless procession of boy friends who call on Judy's older sister, Lois, and by the terrible temper of J. B. Curtis, Ellen's father, for whom Judy's father is employed. The play ends happily as all situations are solved satisfactorily and Judy enters triumphantly as a real "Junior Miss."

HOMECOMING

Homecoming was a big event for Hanover High School. The festivities commenced with a parade at six o'clock, followed by the game with Benton at eight o'clock. Mary Potter, the Homecoming Queen, was crowned at half-time by the honorary Captain, Alex Paisley. The Queen was attended by Jeannine Petitgoue, Marilyn Speer and Norma Jean Kaufman.
